4.3 No shareholder shall be obliged to have his shares wholly or partly redeemed.

4.4 No restrictions shall apply to the negotiability of the shares.

4.5 No shares shall have special rights.

5. Cancellation

5.1 The Company's shares may be cancelled without judgement according to the relevant rules applying at any time.

6. Dividend

6.1 As soon as the annual report has been adopted by the general meeting dividend on the shares shall be paid by means of transfer to the accounts designated by the shareholders in accordance with the rules on the Danish Securities Centre applying at any time.

6.2 Dividend not claimed within 5 years from the due date shall be transferred to the Company's reserve fund.

7. General Meetings

7.1 The Company's general meetings shall be held in Frederikssund or in Copenhagen.

7.2 General meetings shall be open to the press.

7.3 The annual general meeting shall be held so early that the audited and adopted annual report may be submitted to and received by the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency no later than four months from the end of the accounting year. The audited and approved annual report shall be submitted to the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency without undue delay after adoption.

7.4 Extraordinary general meetings shall be held when the Board or the auditors deem it necessary. Furthermore, extraordinary general meetings shall be called within 14 days when, for the purpose of dealing with a particular specified issue, this is requested in writing by shareholders owning 1/10 of the share capital.

7.5 All general meetings shall be called electronically at no less than eight days' and no more than four weeks' notice, according to article 17. Each shareholder who has provided the Company with an e-mail address and who has requested to be called to general meetings shall be called by e-mail, in accordance with article 17.2. The notice of meeting shall contain the agenda. The notice is forwarded to the shareholders along with - if at all possible - the complete proposals for the agenda to be discussed at the general meeting, and in the case of an ordinary general meeting the audited accounts with the signatures of the Board and the Management.

In case of extraordinary circumstances preventing the complete proposals to be discussed at the general meeting and in the case of an ordinary general meeting, the audited accounts with the signatures of the Board and the Management being forwarded, these will be presented to the shareholders for their perusal no later than eight days before the general meeting.

7.6 All shareholders are entitled to have a particular issue discussed by the general meeting if that shareholder submits a written request to the Board in time for the issue to be included in the agenda for the general meeting. Proposals received by the previous 1 February will be ensured inclusion in the agenda for the annual general meeting.

8. Agenda

8.1 The agenda for the annual general meeting shall comprise the following items:

- 1) Election of a chairman of the meeting.
- 2) The Management's report on the Company's activities during the past accounting year.
- 3) Presentation of the audited annual report for adoption.

- 5) Election of Directors.
- 6) Appointment of auditor.

- 7) Authorisation of the Board to acquire up to 10% of the Company's share capital for the Company for a period of 18 months from the date of the general meeting against payment of between DKK 0 and 10% more than the latest quoted price on the Copenhagen Stock Exchange prior to the acquisition.
- 8) Proposals from Directors or shareholders, if any.

9. Right to Attend and Voting Rights

- 9.1 Any shareholder shall have access to general meetings if, at least three days prior to the meeting, he has obtained an admission card for himself and his adviser, if any, from the Company's office with reference to the registration of the shares in the list of shareholders or presentation of documentation of the shareholding.
- 9.2 Shareholders who have acquired shares through transfer may not exercise the voting rights of those shares at general meetings that were called, unless the shareholders have been registered in the list of shareholders or have given notice of and documented their acquisition.
- 9.3 Shareholders who have acquired shares in any other way than by transfer may not exercise the voting rights of those shares unless the shareholders are registered in the list of shareholders or have given notice of and documented their right prior to the general meeting.
- 9.4 Each share amount of DKK 0.25 shall entitle the holder to one vote.
- 9.5 Voting rights may be exercised through a proxy who shall present a written and dated proxy. A proxy may not be valid for more than one year at a time.

10. Majority and Representation

- 10.1 The issues discussed by general meetings shall be decided by simple majority.
- 10.2 Decisions to modify the Company's Articles of Association or to liquidate the Company shall require that at least half the share capital is represented at the general meeting and that the proposal is adopted by at least 2/3 of the votes cast as well as of the voting share capital represented at the general meeting.

If the above-mentioned share amount is not represented at the general meeting in question and if the proposal fails to achieve 2/3 of the votes cast, the proposal shall have failed. If the proposal achieves 2/3 of the votes cast, the Board shall within 14 days call a new extraordinary general meeting, and if the proposal achieves at least 2/3 of the votes cast at this meeting as well as of the voting share capital represented at the general meeting, the proposal shall have been adopted regardless of the size of the share capital represented.

10.3 A proxy to attend the first general meeting shall - unless it has been revoked – be regarded as valid also as regards the second general meeting.

10.4 The Company's Board shall be authorised to make such modification and additions to the Company's Articles of Association as the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency may require with reference to the Danish Companies Act in force at any time.

11. The Board

11.1 The general meeting shall elect a Board consisting of three to six members from the shareholders or from outside the group of shareholders. Furthermore, the employees shall elect up to three Directors, cf. the provisions of the Danish Companies Act on employee representation on the Board applying at any time.

11.2 The Directors elected by the general meeting shall be elected for one year at a time and may be re-elected.

11.3 The Board, who shall elect its own Chairman and Deputy Chairman, shall be in charge of the overall management of the Company.

Proposed at the Extraordinary General Meeting 14 April 2008

On behalf of the board of directors

Michael Vilhelm Nielsen, attorney-at-law

Exhibit 1 to the Articles of Association

Extract from Minutes of Board Meeting

On 12 April 2006, the board of Topsil Semiconductor Materials A/S held a meeting where it was decided to issue warrants to the managing director of the Company. The decision reads as follows:

Draft new Articles of Association were presented and were approved by the board in their entirety.

After discussing the proposed issuance of warrants and in accordance with the proposal and clause 3.6 of the Articles of Association and the conditions mentioned therein, the board decided that a total of 3,931,500 warrants will be issued to the managing director of the Company, that each warrant gives the beneficiary the subscription right to one share in the Company with a nominal value of DKK 0.25, that the nominal capital of the Company will be increased by a minimum of nominally DKK 0.25 when the subscription right is exercised, the equivalent of 1 share with a nominal value of DKK 0.25 and a maximum of nominally DKK 982,875, the equivalent of 3,931,500 shares with a nominal value of DKK 0.25 each, that the present shareholders in the Company do not have preferential subscription rights to the issued warrants or to any shares received upon exercise of the subscription rights of the warrants, that regardless of the above, the beneficiary may exercise his subscription rights in accordance with the conditions stipulated in the Company's Warrant Agreement (Appendix A) that the beneficiary must acknowledge receipt of the issued warrants during the period of 7 November - 21 November 2005 on a subscription list prepared by the board, that the subscription right of the warrants to shares in the Company may be exercised in 2007, 2008 and 2009 respectively, that the price of the shares obtained by exercising the subscription right of the warrants is set in the Warrant Agreement, that a time limit set by the board of the Company will apply between the exercise of the subscription right to Company shares and the payment of a cash amount equivalent to the subscription price of said shares, that the allotted warrants may not be subject to mortgage or seizure, and they may only be transferred with the consent of the board, that the shares issued through the exercise of the subscription rights of the warrants will in every respect be identical to and possess identical legal status as other shares in the Company.

The board further passed a resolution to increase capital in accordance with the issuance of warrants and to incorporate the above decision to issue warrants in the Articles of Association as a summary. The board authorized attorney-at-law, Michael Vilhelm Nielsen to take the appropriate measures to ensure the registration of the resolution including the signing and submitting of the appropriate forms to the Danish Commerce and Companies Agency.

In this context it is noted that hereafter, clause 3.6 of the Articles of Association will include an authorization to issue 6,068,500 warrants. It was decided that clause 3.6 of the Articles of Association would be amended accordingly. Furthermore, these minutes of the board meeting will be attached to the Articles of Association.
